2023 Private Applicator Certificate (PAC) Renewal

Private Applicator Certificates for holders with a last name beginning with letters I through Q will expire on December 31. You may renew your certificate by doing the following:

- Take the private applicator test
- OR
- Submit proof of continuing education hours from the last three years (we do not keep these records in our files). You need a total of six hours, two of which must be in laws and regulations.

Without a valid certificate, you may no longer apply restricted materials after December 31st. No Notices of Intent to apply restricted materials will be approved until your certificate has been renewed.

If you need to take the test, we suggest you take it as soon as possible before your current certificate expires. The test is offered at 8:00 am, 10:00 am, 1:00 pm, and 3:00 pm Monday through Friday by appointment only.

Sincerely,

Rachel Garewal
Deputy Agricultural Commissioner
